IRISH ACCEPTANCE RELIEVES ENGLAND

Constitutional Innovation Only Will Appease Erin, Is London Opinion.

By the Associated Press. on, Oct. 1.—England to-day was filled with hope that a settlement of the Irish problem would follow the meeting esentatives of Sinn Fein Ireland in this elty on October 11. The prompt reply Itation of the Prime Minister, Mr. Lloyd George, to the conference, and the con between Lendon and Dublin seemed to ise a conference for agreement.

Regarding the difficulties ahead the London Times deprecated the "dominio status" as a fixed formula to which the agreement must conform. The news-

I that, inasmuch as the idealism e Sinn Fein is, above all else, racial haracter, the ultimate settlement

comment to-day avoided dis-how the Republican claims
